To the Heads of National Federations, Associations, and sports organizations affiliated with the International Turon Federation

ITF Competition Calendar for 2027

Dear Colleagues,

The International Turon Federation (ITF) is pleased to share its competition calendar for 2027.

To coordinate national and international competition schedules and facilitate effective planning for athletes, coaches, and referees, we recommend that your organization take the ITF calendar into account when developing its national competition calendar for 2027.

When scheduling national competitions, please avoid conflicts with ITF international events and allow sufficient time for national team selection and preparation.

Thank you for your continued cooperation and active contribution to the development of Turon.

Attachment: ITF Competition Calendar for 2027.

Sincerely,
Farrukh Niyazimbetov

President
